FINANCE COMMITTEE COMPLETES ROSTER, TACKLES '51 BUDGET

Chairman J. Howard Hayes has recently completed the roster of his Finance Committee which now gets down to the important business of the budget for 1951.

Several vacancies occurred late this fall due to pressure of business and other reasons. New additions to the Committee are Milton H. Bretscher, 48 Melrose st. (Prec. 2); James E. Potts, 4 Cabot rd. (Prec. 4); Howard R. Enson, 20 Monadnock rd. (Prec. 6); John J. Driscoll, 103 Oakland ave. (member at large).

It is understood all of the departmental budgets are now in the hands of the Town Accountant, copies of which will be forwarded to the Committee.

The 15-man Committee faces a difficult task this year with rising costs on the one hand and taxpayers screaming at a tax of over $50, on the other.

It is known that the School Department has upped its request somewhere around $70,000. Other departments undoubtedly are asking for more funds. The local Civil Defense program will be a new and additional burden of no small weight.

Sub Committee A—Percival E. Richardson, chm., Edwin A. Barnard, James B. Potts. Budgets—finance committee, board of selectmen, town accountant, town council, elections and town meetings, town hall, police department, fire department, fire and police signal system, building, plumbing and gas inspection, board of appeal, sealer of weights and measures, kypay and brown to moth sup-tree warden, inspector of animals, traffic signals, pensions—non contributory, memorial day and patriots day, printing town reports, insurance, reserve fund, Menotomy hall and town houses, civil defense.

Sub committee B—Charles A. Armitage, Chm., William R. Bennett, Howard R. Enson, John J. Driscoll. Budgets—town treasurer and collector of taxes, board of assessors, town clerk, engineer-in-charge, planning board, board of survey, wire department, board of health, street lighting, Robbins Library, public parks department, Warren A. Peirce playground, contributory retirement system, cemeteries, interest, maturing town debt and sinking fund, personnel board.

Sub committee C—James R. Robson, Chm., Clifton N. Fogg, William R. Farrow, Milton H. Bretscher. Budgets—board of public works, sewer maintenance, public works—sanitary division, highways and bridges, snow and ice removal, water department—extension of water mains, sewers, drains.

Sub Committee D—Martin F. Roach, Chm., Henry E. Halpin, Warren H. Daniels. Budgets—public welfare, aid to dependent children, old age, assistance and district nurses, veteran's benefits, school department.

Policy Committee (E)—James R. Robson, Chm., Charles A. Armitage, Martin F. Roach, Percival E. Richardson.

The chairman of the Finance Committee, J. Howard Hayes, is a member (ex-officio) of all sub committees.

T. Gordon Smith is the paid, non-voting, executive secretary. He was appointed a member of the Finance Committee in 1931 and served until he was appointed executive secretary in 1939.

Daddy Millican was in the Air Force as aerial engineer in World War II. A native of this town he met his wife, Margaret Halverson, while stationed in Idaho. The Millicans also have a son, Wayne, who will be four in February.

URGENT CALL FOR BLOOD—GIVE MONDAY

Although this town has at least 20,000 people of the proper age, less than 100 have volunteered to give blood.

Tremendous quantities of blood are being shipped daily to Korea for the wounded brought back to the coast. Large amounts are flown to the West coast each day from the 31 regional Red Cross blood headquarters throughout the United States. The Boston center alone sends out 230 pints of blood per day.

At the latest report of the local committee yesterday noon, 75 donors had volunteered to give blood at the Bloodmobile which will be at St. John's parish hall on Pleasant st. next Monday, Jan. 8, from 12:45 to 6:30 p.m. These individual donors are exclusive of two groups, one from the Buttrick Company and one from the staff of Symmes Arlington Hospital.

In spite of this report, more donors are still urgently needed. The local committee, with Mrs. Russell T. Hamlet as chairman, includes Dr. Richard Morvan, Rev. Halsey Andrews, Hal-lam Ring, E. Vernon Rich, Mrs. W. H. Farrow, Mrs. Sidney St. Wens, Mrs. Henry Lance, Mrs. Ralph Penton, Mrs. J. Frank Pearson and Mrs. Fred Donnelly. Donors wishing to volunteer may make appointments for next Monday by calling AR 5-8675.

Lt. Margaret O'Neill Visits Parents Here

Lt. Margaret L. O'Neill, U.S. M.C., spent the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter F. O'Neill of Jason terrace.

She was selected from over a thousand applicants to attend the Women Officers' Training Class at Quantico, Virginia, last summer and was one of four women commissioned as second lieutenants in the United States Marine Corps.

Lt. O'Neill is now stationed at Henderson Hall, Arlington, Virginia, where she is an executive officer for a company of women.

Archbishop Appoints St. James' Pastor

The Most Rev. Richard J. Cushing, Archbishop of Boston, last Friday morning announced his appointment of the Rev. George S. Brennan to the pastorate of St. James' church at the Heights, to succeed the late Rev. Maurice J. O'Connor, D.D., whose death occurred Dec. 17.

Father Brennan comes from St. Thomas church in Wilmington, where he has been pastor for the past few years. Father Brennan will assume the pastorate at St. James' next Monday, Jan. 8.

Participating in the dedication service were the Rev. Milton F. Schadeegg, the Rev. Earl Douglas, Edward Bauman, Miss Elder, Frank Lincoln, Leslie Frederick, Philip Morrison, and Robert Cleveland.

The dedication was given by Rev. Earl Douglas, associate minister of the Massachusetts Congregational Council and Missionary Society. The altar flowers were the gift of the Rev. and Mrs. Schadeegg and son, John.

The ushers were Hartwell Flemming, Cleon Babcock, John Lyfe and Ariel Thomas.

A friendly social hour followed the dedication with tea served by the hospitality committee. Pourers were Mrs. Schadeegg and Mrs. Lincoln.

Class Reunion of '50

The graduating class of 1950 of the Arlington High School enjoyed the first of a series of gala reunions held at the Ye Lantern on Dec. 27. The hall was brightly arrayed with New Year decorations which really added zest to the occasion. Almost the entire class was present and everyone spent the evening exchanging comments on college and various other activities.

Among the many statements overheard was, "Don't you wish you were in high school?" This is so very true among most of us.

It was surprising upon discovering the number of couples that were married, engaged, and those still going steady. A survey showed that quite a few of the class were serving in the armed forces.

The class officers wish to thank everyone who helped in making the reunion so successful and are looking forward to seeing everyone at the next.

A. H. S. Wins On Ice and Boards

The High School's hockey and track teams won contests handsly Saturday.

The pack chasers downed Newton, 4 to 2, and bounced up into a tie for third place with Rindge and Belmont in the G.B.I. league. The leaders are Cambridge Latin and Melrose with 5 points each.

Scorers for Arlington were Timmons, O'Brien assisted by Timmons, Cooledge with O'Brien, and Cronin with Cooledge.

The trackmen got off to a good start in the Metropolitan Inter-schools Track league by swamping Somerville, 51 to 26. Paul Salisbury copped two blue ribbons—the shot and 50-yard dash.

The top performance, however, went to Bill Squires who won the mile with the new league record time of 4:50.7. Most schoolboy dual meets are won around 5 min., 10 to 20 seconds. Squires' pace of 10 seconds under 5 minutes was phenomenal.

Other first place winners were Tarausi, Atwood, Sullivan, Leveoni. Points were added by Coffey, Kanealy, Geary, Demaso and Theller.

T M COMMITTEE CALLS MEETING

The Committee on Town Manager Form of Government plans to hold a Public Hearing on Wednesday, Jan. 10, at 8:00 in the Robbins Memorial Town Hall.

The hearing will be an opportunity for the citizens of Arlington to acquaint themselves with the outline and main provisions of the Town Manager Act, as prepared to date by the Committee, to ask questions of the Committee, and to express their opinions on the proposed Act which may prove helpful to the Committee in shaping the final draft of the Act.

The Act will then be published in its entirety in the Town Warrant for the annual town meeting next March.

Will Not Run For Re-election

Last week's "flash" announcement in this paper was substantiated by a signed statement made public yesterday by Selectman Joseph A. Purcell that he will not run in March, 1951. His statement:

"I wish to announce that I am not a candidate for re-election to the Board of Selectmen at the forthcoming annual election in March. The increased demands upon my time from my law practice make it impossible for me to be a candidate for public office at the present time.

"I would like to thank the citizens of Arlington for the kind and generous confidence they have always accorded me whenever I have aspired to public office and have always tried to the best of my ability to justify the trust they reposed in me."

(Signed) JOSEPH A. PURCELL

"Messiah" Aired By Station WTAO

On Sunday afternoon radio station WTAO of Cambridge broadcast the second half of the recent Arlington Philharmonic production of Handel's Messiah. Members of the Philharmonic expressed satisfaction concerning the fidelity of the recording, made the night of the recent concert by the Hill Recording Co. of Medford.

The station gave no advance notice of the broadcast. Thus, many interested people failed to hear the recording.

Conductor Leonard Wood stated that the recording was, in his opinion, "excellent," especially considering the fact that it was made with little acoustical preparation.

Rehearsals for the Spring concert will begin next Monday for the chorus and Tuesday for the orchestra. The Philharmonic welcomes newcomers to both. Of particular interest will be the modern "Ballad for Americans" by John La Touche and Earl Robinson. The main theme of our history is carried by a baritone narrator throughout the performance. Four periods divide the work into musical parts—The Revolution, Growth of the Union, Civil War, and the Machine Age.

Barnstead Enters Selectman Race

William A. Barnstead of 311 Appleton st., yesterday announced his candidacy for the office of selectman. Barnstead, 31, is a successful business man, being owner of the Wm. Barnstead Engineering Co., 39 Sudbury st., Boston.

Barnstead stated that he will concentrate his campaign on one single issue—a strong town manager act. As one of the leaders of the original group which presented such an act to the town last fall, he "supports unequivocally this proposed change." He feels that a town manager, given proper authority, will make possible "substantial savings through the introduction of sound business principles."

Mr. Barnstead's own business career is of interest. Starting in 1947 with a capital of less than $5000, his firm is today grossing more than $100,000 a year. His principal product—a water still—is a development of the first water still in this country, invented by his grandfather, in 1873 for the Massachusetts School of Pharmacy.

The candidate has been a resident of Arlington since 1924, when his family moved here from Cambridge. He graduated from Arlington High School in 1938 where he was a member of the hockey team. He is married to the former Charlotte L. Gillingham of Lexington. They have one son—William A. Jr., age 4. He and his family are members of the Park Avenue Congregational church.

Mr. Barnstead served in the U. S. Army during the war. He is town meeting member from precinct 14.

In announcing his candidacy, Mr. Barnstead stated that as a comparatively young man, he is in an excellent position to understand the problems which confront the many new home owners of Arlington. His supporters feel that in combining the vitality of youth with proved business experience, he is able to offer Arlington capable service.

The office of Town Clerk reports several candidates have taken out nomination papers this week in addition to the seven reported in last week's Advocate.

A bit of mystery was added to the local scene when Francis J. Higgins of 86 Marathon st. took out 10 papers but "not for himself," a spokesman said. Higgins, himself, is a former School Committee member and was a candidate, two years ago, for Town Clerk.

Adding another touch of secrecy, Vincent A. Burns of 118 Pleasant st. took papers from the Town Clerk's office yesterday afternoon. He said at that time he was "undecided" as to what office he would run for. Burns is a local attorney and was an unsuccessful candidate for Democratic senatorial nomination last September.

A telephone message was received yesterday noon at the Advocate office from Edward W. Higgins to announce his candidacy for Board of Public Works. Higgins is proprietor of the Frost & Higgins Co., tree experts and foresters, on Mill st. He resides at 78 Scituate st. and has lived in town many years.

As a complete surprise yesterday came the announcement that William A. Barnstead, 31, of 311 Appleton st. and town meeting member from Precinct 14 will run for Selectman. Barnstead is owner of a manufacturing concern, making water stills.

Others announced this week include: Town Clerk, James J. Golden, incumbent; Public Works, Frank J. Hughes, 166 Franklin st., well-known in the plumbing and heating business; Assessor, J. Albert Hansen, 10 White st.; Treasurer and Collector, J. Wilbert Anderson, incumbent; School Committee, James W. Kidder and John A. Allison, incumbents; Tree warden, George M. Dolan, incumbent; Cemetery Commission, Wathan B. Henderson, incumbent.

Contacted at their homes last night neither Burns nor Higgins would shed any light. Higgins said he was "not able to divulge the name" of his man. Burns said, "I have not decided what office, if any, for which to run." He indicated, however, if he did not try for a major office, he would run for town meeting member from Precinct 6.

THE SELECTMEN will meet soon with the Sinking Fund Commissioners and the Trustees of the Francis E. Thompson Scholarship Fund to appoint new members as the result of the resignation of Harrie Dadmun from the former and the untimely death of Edward C. Hildreth, late member of the latter board.

Arlington's extremely low holiday accident record is most encouraging. It is a fine testimony to our police, our speed zones, and, yes, even our drivers!

We growl up are fine ones to tell the children not to skate on thin ice. The state of the world is about as solidly frozen as the Pacific Ocean.

Congrats to the A.H.S. sextet! A couple more wins like the Medford victory should insure student support, which is poor at this time.

A government-minded Bob Mahoney has taken out his selection papers. He was elected to the Planning Board last year.

The inbound safety island at Lake st. and Massachusetts ave. will soon acquire the same ill fame as the "Siren's Rock" of Greek mythology which lured countless sailors to their deaths. It is possible that it could be moved or removed down. Do we have to wait for a really terrible twist and tangle of wreckage and bodies before we do this?

The way most of us celebrate the New Year, it's safe to make plenty of good resolutions. After all, who can expect us to remember them after a night like New Year's Eve always is?

Wins Special Award

Henry E. Keenan of the Keenan Insurance Agency has won special recognition for outstanding service in the insurance profession through election to the Amico Aces, a nationwide honorary organization of American Motorists Insurance Company.

The election was announced by James S. Kemper, Chairman of the company, which sponsors the honorary organization.

Membership is awarded only to those representatives who have maintained the highest standards in the selection of policyholders, conduct of their business and integrity in their dealings, according to Mr. Kemper.

Speaking of New Year's resolutions, this column has one. It is this column's opinion that too many items are skipped by too many newspapers for fear of hurting someone's feelings. Well, as far as we're concerned, the truth always hurts but it's the only thing to tell. End of resolution.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH SERVICES

The Ten Commandments, basic rules for right human conduct through which thought unfolds to the point of understanding God, will be considered at Christian Science services next Sunday. Title of the Lesson-Sermon is "God."

Readings from the Bible (King James Version) include the First Commandment: "Thou shalt have no other gods before me" (Exodus 20:3).

This commandment is discussed further in passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, which include the following paragraph: "One infinite God, good, unifies men and nations; constitutes the brotherhood of man; ends wars; fulfills the Scripture, 'Love thy neighbor as thyself'; annihilates pagan and Christian idolatry; what ever is wrong in social, civil, criminal, political, and religious codes; equalizes the sexes; annuls the curse on man, and leaves nothing that can sin, suffer, be punished or destroyed" (p. 340).

Tight Fit

Anybody see an empty pair of shoes walking around? If they're brown oxfords, size 5½, they probably belong to Douglas Brown, 11, of Watertown.

While skating at the Heights Reservoir, Douglas lost his shoes. With true Yankee ingenuity, Douglas managed to wear a pair home—brown oxfords, size 3½.

Douglas, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Brown of 40 Hillside st., couldn't quite explain the mishap, but he'll know what's meant when someone says, "If the shoe fits, wear it!"

Well, almost, anyway!

SAINT JOHN'S CHURCH TO HOLD WEEK'S OBSERVANCE OF 75th

St. John's Episcopal church is planning appropriate observance of the seventy-fifth anniversary of its organization. The first Episcopal services in Arlington were held in October, 1875, in the Old Town Hall and two weeks later were transferred to Menotomy Hall which was on the site of the present Robbins Memorial Town Hall.

A temporary organization of St. John's Mission was formed but on Jan. 9, 1876 "The Parish of St. John's Church" was legally organized.

A program of events is planned for this Diamond Jubilee beginning with a special service Sunday morning, Jan. 14, when the rector, Rev. Halsey I. Andrews, will preach an anniversary sermon. Monday is the annual parish meeting, preceded by a Swedish supper to be served to members of St. John's by ladies of Trinity Lutheran Church of Arlington.

Wins Signal Contract

A low bid of $24,486.00 submitted by R. W. LeBaron, Inc., of Arlington, for the installation of seven traffic signals on Massachusetts ave., between Mill and Franklin sts., was announced by Commissioner of Public Works William F. Callahan.

Another bid of $27,170.06 was submitted by the Municipal Signal & Supply Co. of Boston.

GARDEN CLUB

At the next meeting of the Arlington Garden Club which will be held Wednesday, Jan. 10, at 2 p.m. at Library hall the feature attraction will be an illustrated lecture, "Pennsylvania Gardens and New England Calling" presented by a representative of the Esso Standard Oil Company.

CALL TO PRAYER

Bishop Sherrill, president of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the United States in issuing the call to Prayer has said in part:

"Once again we hear the angelic chorus, now in a time of war and rumors of war, as the crisis of our generation lengthens and deepens. The supreme lesson of our day is our need of God, His wisdom, His mercy, and His guidance of men and of nations."

"Events call for deep searching of hearts, for clarifying of purpose, for humility, yet also for determined action. Within ourselves alone we cannot find the resources to meet the necessities of this hour. Our strength comes from God, Who sent His Son that the world through Him might be saved."

"As never before we should pray daily to God for all mankind, for those who have at home and abroad the responsibility of governmental decisions, for the United Nations, for the establishment of a peace of justice, and purged of self-righteousness and worldly fear and anxieties, the rededication of ourselves and of our nation to the will of God."

From January 8 to 14 the Protestant Churches of Arlington will observe a universal week of prayer. St. John's Episcopal, Trinity Baptist and Park Avenue Congregational Churches will be open daily from 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. for prayer and meditation. I strongly urge the people of this community to avail themselves of this opportunity to make their prayers for peace a corporate act.

Although the local defense office will not be ready to actually assign volunteers who use the reply cards for about 30 days, it is urgently requested that the cards be returned immediately for classification, checking, and the filling out of a questionnaire.

The volunteer card reads: "I am willing to serve as a volunteer in our Civil Defense program. It is my understanding that you will later advise me of the various branches of Civil Defense so that I may choose the branch best suited for me." (Signed).

Volunteers Needed For Civil Defense

Arriving in homes early next week will be the mailing from the local office of Civil Defense. It will contain a booklet on "Protection from the Atomic Bomb", a letter signed by Joseph A. Purcell, chairman of the Board of Selectmen, and return postcard asking for volunteers.

The actual mailing is through the courtesy of the Arlington Gas Light Co. for the addressing and a group of Boy Scouts under Horace Homer for the inserting of material and sealing the envelopes. The scouts reported at the Town Hall on Saturday and

Mr. and Mrs. William Rae Polk
(Joan Alison Cooledge)

Miss Joan A. Cooledge Is Married In Historic Heirloom Wedding Gown

Against a setting of Christmas greens and holly combined with a beautiful white floral arrangement and white candles at the altar, Miss Joan Alison Cooledge, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scott Cooledge of 8 Devereaux st., became the bride of William Rae Polk, the son of Mrs. Adelaide Rae Polk of Fort Worth, Texas, and direct descendant of President James K. Polk. The wedding ceremony was performed on Friday afternoon, Dec. 15, in the Wellesley College chapel by the Rev. John Nicol Mark, pastor of the First Parish Church in Arlington. Harvey Davies was organist, with Ruth Piette of Oak Park, Illinois, as soloist. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride wore an heirloom wedding gown of ivory satin and veil of rosepoint lace which has been worn by many brides in the Polk family. Joan is the twentieth bride to have worn this gown and veil. She carried a bouquet of white snapdragons and white heather. The bridal attendants were gowned all alike in ballerina off-shoulder tulle dresses of Christmas green with sequin design at waist and shoulder. Their bouquets were of Christmas holly caught with red satin ribbons.

Miss Sally Cooledge was her sister's maid of honor, while Miss Lorna Doherty of Scarsdale, N.Y., a cousin of the bride, and Miss Caroline Bailey of Barrington, Rhode Island, were the bridesmaids.

William Price of New York City was best man for his cousin. The corps of ushers, headed by W. Scott Cooledge III, the bride's brother, included Cooper Blakenesh of Texas, Philip Jessup of Washington, D. C., Andrew Norman and Max Kempner, both of New York City.

As flower girl, Marcia Fuller wore a colonial gown of pale green chiffon, and carried a bouquet similar to those of the other attendants. David Cooledge, brother of the bride, was ring-bearer.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Cooledge chose a taffeta dress of changeable green-and-gold, with beige hat and green-and-gold orchid corsage. Mrs. Polk, the groom's mother, wore a royal blue dressmaker suit, winter-white hat with blue flowers, and a corsage of gold orchids.

The reception was held at Munger Hall, Wellesley College. Miss Sue Ann Gillfillan of Vermont was in charge of the guest book. The hall was beautifully decorated with Christmas greens and a special design of carol singers. In charge of all the decorations at the ceremony and reception was Mrs. George Ham.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mrs. Rea Polk of Athens, Greece; Mrs. Adelaide Fuller of Fort Worth, Texas, sister of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Goodlatte of East Long Meadow, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Newick of Chelmsford, and Mr. and Mrs. C. U. Price of Montclair, N.J. A bridal shower was given by Miss Helen Reehsterna of 21 Spring Valley.

Prospecting the Project

[ARLINGTON VETERANS' HOUSING PROJECT]
by Harriet Fitzgerald

Well, Christmas and New Year's Day being over, the Project has settled down to normal life once more. We down here are mighty proud of the way nearly 100 percent of the people got together and decorated their homes for this, our first Christmas together.

Mr. and Mrs. John Carroll of 152 Gardner st. were pleasantly surprised when their son, John, arrived home unexpectedly for the holidays. John, oldest of the Carroll's nine children, graduated from Arlington High School in 1948 and enlisted in the U. S. Navy the same year. At the present he is a storekeeper, 3rd class, attached to the Atlantic Fleet. Another son, Edward, also in the Navy, was unable to attend the traditional family gathering for Christmas. The youngest of the Carroll children, Gerald, age 3, has been confined at Haynes Memorial Hospital, since September with polio. Though it is impossible to say how long he will be a patient at the hospital, the doctors say that he is progressing satisfactorily. Jerry's many friends showered him with presents and tried to give him a Merry Christmas in spite of the fact that the little fellow is still unable to walk.

Sergeant Arthur Broeg of the U. S. Army, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Richard P. Broeg, former minister of the Arlington Heights Methodist Church, was recalled to the service the latter part of November but was able to spend the holidays with his wife and two children at 88 Fremont st. Mrs. Sally Broeg, his wife, is one of two Scottish war brides living down here. Sgt. Broeg was a radio man on a B-17 attached to the eighth Air Force during the last war and is presently assigned to Washington.

Paul Flynn of 27 Fremont court has recently been admitted to the West Roxbury Veterans Hospital for treatment of a recurrent war injury. Flynn is married to the former Norma DiGirolomo of Arlington and is the father of two children, Paul and Mary Ann.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Weidaw Jr. expect to leave Arlington shortly after the first of the year to establish a residence in Camden, Maine. Mr. Weidaw has been transferred to the Portland branch of the Graybar Electric Co. Mrs. Weidaw is the former Virginia Godfrey of Varnum st. Arlington. Ken was a former well known athlete of Arlington High before serving overseas as Lt. Commander in the U.S.N. attached to the Pacific Fleet.

Little Barbara Crosby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Crosby of 108 Gardner st. received a wonderful Christmas present when Mrs. Crosby arrived home the day before Christmas with a new baby sister for Barbie. The new arrival was born Dec. 19, and has been named Marjorie Patricia.

And on the last day of the old year, a new son, born Dec. 9, to Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Donnelly Jr. of 100 Gardner st. was christened Michael Gerard. The Donnellys have two other children, Patrick III and Carol Ann.

RECOGNITION

Dear Sir,
It is with deepest regret that we of The Salvation Army learned of the passing of Edward C. Hildreth, who served as Treasurer of our Arlington Annual Appeal and of The Salvation Army Arlington Service Unit for the past sixteen years.

Mr. Hildreth had always been an enthusiast for The Salvation Army, and cooperated unflinchingly to the fullest extent possible in all of our endeavors as touching his community.

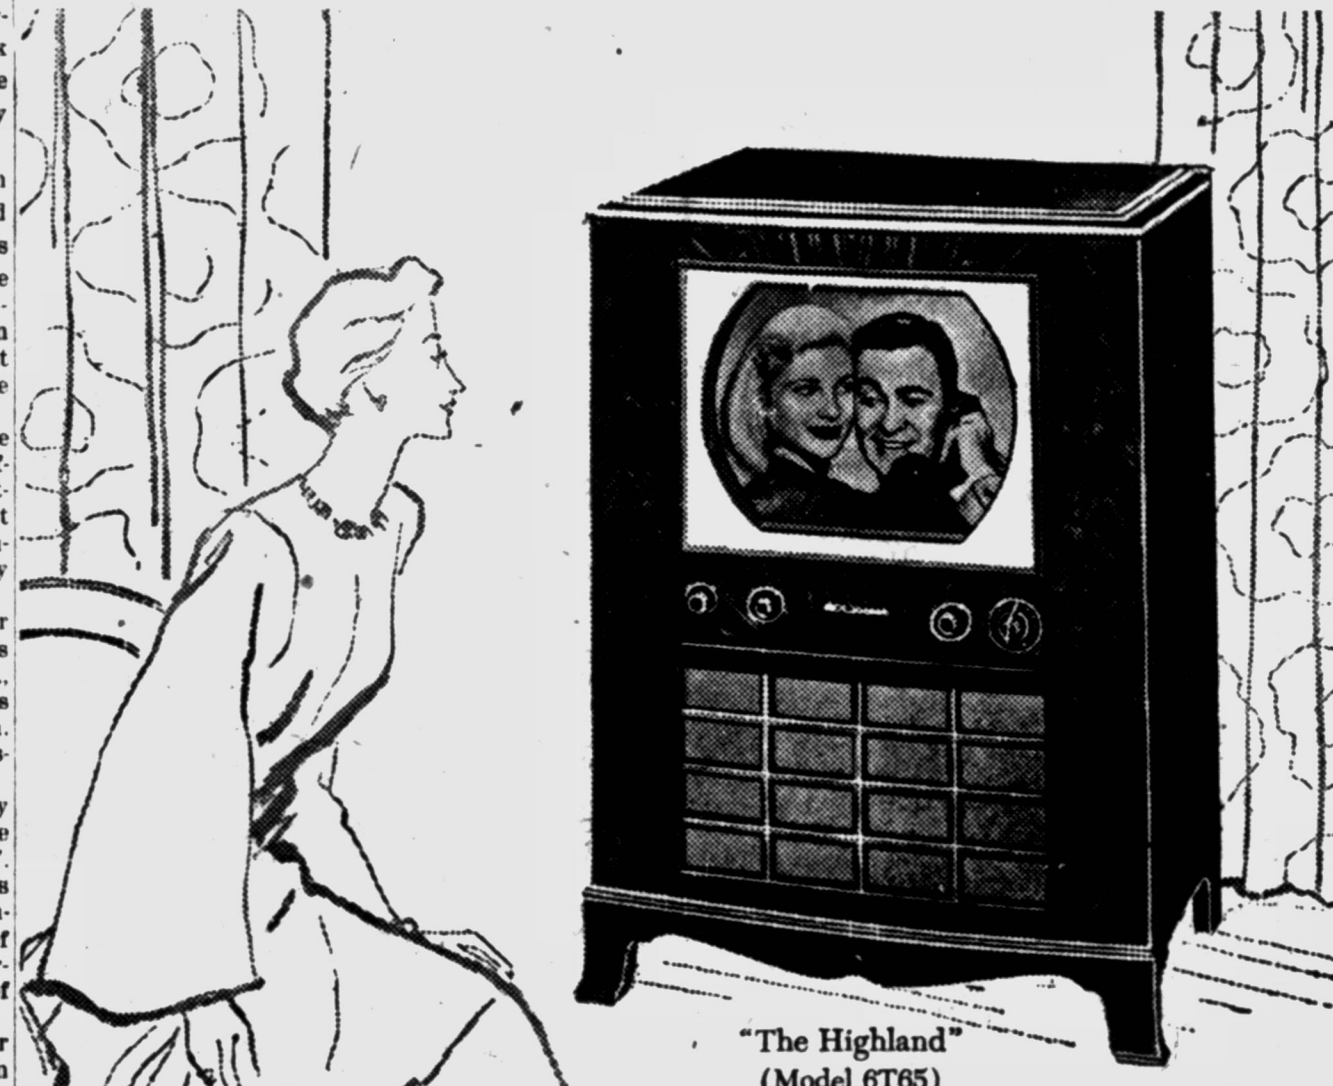

Aside from his relations with The Salvation Army, throughout the period of his service with us, I looked upon him as a personal friend.

Our heartfelt sympathy has already been extended to his widow, but we feel that we would be remiss indeed if we did not offer this public tribute to the memory of a tried and true friend of the Army, whom we shall greatly miss.

Sincerely yours,
W. A. Nicol
Provincial
Public Relations Secretary

WINDY GUSTS at 8° above zero do not cool the warmth of sightless Robert W. Barnstead's cheery greeting to the Hudson Bus driver as he rides nightly to his newsstand in Arlington Center. (Kind-hearted cops used to pick him up very frequently in a prowl car). Barnstead is a Town Meeting member and is well-known for his stand against rising costs of government, voicing opposition to pay increases to town employees at the last special town meeting.

7 Stores Ablaze New Year's Day

Local firemen rang in the New Year late Monday battling a two-alarm fire which started in the rear of Gregory's Dry Goods, 162 Massachusetts ave., and spread throughout the block located between Egerton rd. and Melrose st. on Mass. avenue in East Arlington. The first alarm was at 12:47 p.m. and ten minutes later the second call was put in.

The blaze which did considerable damage to Gregory's roared into the partitions separating the stores and then along the roof. There was no fire wall between every store to stop the blaze as the block had been built before this requirement became a state law. The cause of the blaze is undetermined.

Other stores suffering damage were East Arlington Fish Market, Sample Plumbing Co., Arlington Curtain Laundry, Arlington Lunch, John's Barber Shop and Teddy's Shoe Shop. Recall sounded at 3:20 p.m.

The exact figure on the loss was not estimated but it is believed to be high.

Four Overcome By Seeping Gas

Four persons were overcome Friday night when escaping illuminating gas seeped into the home of Angelo A. Colucci of 102 Alpine street.

Colucci reported the gas to police who rushed to the scene assisted by fire equipment. Neighbors were alerted by officers. Mrs. Anna Colucci, 42, and Patricia Colucci, 19, were revived by fire department members after being completely overcome. Angelo Colucci, 47, and Nancy M. Colucci, 17, suffered slight effects from the gas but were treated with oxygen by police.

Deputy Fire Chief Thomas Egan said that the gas seepage was caused by a possible break in the street-to-house line. The Gas plant at Grove st. was immediately notified.

Dr. Allan McCarthy was the attending physician.

VOTE AGAINST any increase in street lighting rates is the request of the Selectmen to Arlington's state senator and representatives. At the request of the Boston Edison Co., a hearing will be held Jan. 11 at 10 a.m. at the Dept. of Public Utilities. Annual cost for street lighting is over $69,000. Proposed rate would boost it by about $2,000.

RESIGNED as town meeting member has Leonard F. Tibbets, formerly of 82 Wollaston ave. (Precinct 14). He has moved to 23 Morton rd., which is in Precinct 8.

Bud Strout, formerly of 187 Pleasant st. and a graduate of Arlington High School '49, journeyed to Pasadena, Cal., to witness the football game played at the Rose Bowl on New Year's Day. He is a sophomore at the University of Michigan whose team won, 14-6.
